JOEL REDMAN

A DESERT'S INDIFFERENCE

A Desert's Indifference is our first collaboration with Redman and the inaugural show of these works in the UK. This curated selection of photographs from his series Stray from the Path showcases Redman's extraordinary ability to capture the natural beauty and immense scale of California's Death Valley whilst tracking the history of human presence within the land and how it has changed over time.

10% of Sales will go to Joel's chosen charity, the indigenous led If Not Us Then Who, which works to highlight the role indigenous and local peoples play in protecting our planet, working in partnership with communities to make films, create photographs, curate content, commission local artists and host events.
