Josep Maria Marquès i Puig learned his craft from his father, the painter Josep María Marquès i García. He later developed his technique when studying at Joaquim Torres García's art school.

Stylistically, Marquès i Puig worked under the influence of classicism, but was also marked by the Noucentisme that dominated the period.

The present work is an interesting painting that portrays a Parisian woman dressed in accordance with Parisian fashions at the beginning of the 20th century.
