

COLNAGHI

Black-glazed Lidded Oinochoe

Greek (Attic), ca. 4th century B.C.

Terracotta

Height: 16.5 cm; 6 ½ in.

---

Provenance:

Jerome Eisenberg, New York, USA; acquired February 1986

A Greek terracotta jug covered in a rich black glaze, the body with vertical ribs, six rosettes stamped on the high shoulder. The torus foot has a reserved underside with a milos wash. The high-arching handle reaches from the edge of the shoulder to the base of the long upward-reaching, open-topped spout, with thickened wall at the rim and two circular bosses either side of its base.

A small chip to spout restored, a break across handle and neck repaired.

References:

For two Attic examples compare Beazley Archive numbers 9009537 and 9031738