

COLNAGHI

Black-glazed Askos

Greek (Apulian), ca. 4th century B.C.

Terracotta

Height: 8.9 cm; 3 ½ in.

Provenance:

Jerome Eisenberg, New York, USA; acquired in September 1982, inv.no.8401

Small askos with a metallic black-glaze surface. This vessel is in the form of a wineskin, with an incised horizontal line around the top of the body, a ribbon handle reaching upwards from the base of the cylindrical neck, the funnel mouth offset. Intact.

References:

Compare an example with this same indentation around the top of the body in Corpus Vasorum Antiquorum: Prague, Universite Charles 2, 50-51, fig.29, Pls. (136,138) 86.1