KIERAN STILES

Flora Fairbairn & Co. are thrilled to present an exhibition of new works by Kieran Stiles, created during his time as Artist in Residence at on form 2022, the UK's largest sculpture exhibition in stone. Stiles' exhibition runs from 30 September - 20 October 2022 in the ballroom at Asthall Manor, near Burford in Oxfordshire. This body of works represents the culmination of Stiles' residency, which began in the spring and consists of paintings and drawings created in response to the on form sculpture exhibition and the exquisite surroundings of Asthall Manor's garden.

KIERAN STILES: ARTIST IN RESIDENCE, ON FORM 2022

An exhibition of new works created during his residency at Asthall Manor

Curated by Flora Fairbairn

30 September - 20 October 2022

Asthall Manor, Oxfordshire OX18 4HW

ABOUT FLORA FAIRBAIRN & CO.

With a background in History of Art, Architecture and Fine Art, Flora Fairbairn has been curating exhibitions and building art collections since 2000, following a career in architecture and property development. She has produced exhibitions and art installations in a wide array of mostly architecturally interesting locations, in collaboration with collectors, architects, developers and landowners. Projects include exhibitions in the underbelly of the courtyard of Somerset House; a rum factory in Havana; a disused church in Venice and the Fish and Coal building in Kings Cross - loaned to her by the Argent Group, for whom she sat on the art advisory board.

Flora's huge array of collaborations with artists have provided her with an unparalleled advisory service building sensitively curated art collections. She has extensive access to artists and galleries and projects of note include a pop-up gallery space within the ground floor of Selfridges and more recently a group exhibition in a double fronted two-storey building on Chiltern Street loaned by The Portman Estate.
