

LIGHT & SPACE

In this series, La Piana explores light and space as it exists in its purest form, without adulteration or manipulation. Relying on the most basic infrastructure of photography, La Piana's documentation of light as it interacts with his varied subject matter — deer, urban landscapes, and architecture— investigates the shadows creating optical effects propelling the viewer to question the dimensional aspect of the work.