

LATEX PAINTINGS

These paintings are essentially invisible paintings which consists of latex sheets stretched tautly over wood panels.

La Piana then replaces the use of any liquid fluid medium such as paint or ink but instead uses and applies layer after layer of marble dust or talc powder to create infinite and textural surfaces that disappear.