

NANCY HOFFMAN GALLERY
520 WEST 27TH STREET NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10001

Promising Views
September 10 -- October 31, 2020

In celebration of the new season and of autumn, a group exhibition entitled Promising Views opens at Nancy Hoffman Gallery on September 10 and continues through October 31. Each work is filled with positive spirit and intent. All works are of a robust palette and are infused with the kind of energy color imparts, all convey a life enhancing message.

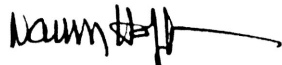

The show will include painting, sculpture, photographs, drawings, a range of media by gallery artists. There will be an air of celebration in the gallery as a result of the rich rainbow, a welcome to a fresh, new and better season. Paintings range from representational to abstract; sculptures from stone to steel to ceramic. Each artist will be represented by a few examples of his or her work. Included in Promising Views are works by:

Nicolas Africano
Michael Gregory
Linda Mieko Allen
Ilan Averbuch
Joan Bankemper
Timothy Cummings
Rupert Deese
Don Eddy
Nathalia Edenmont

Nicole Phungrasamee Fein
Michael Gregory
Hung Liu
Lynn McCarty
Frank Owen
Joseph Raffael
Jesse Small

Images on all works are available, should that be of interest. Please contact the gallery at nancyhoffmangalleryinfo@gmail.com. We look forward to welcoming you to the gallery where all safety precautions are in place. Please visit NHG @520 West 27th Street wearing a mask to enjoy the first show of the new season.

Sincerely,

Nancy Hoffman