ASH & PLUMB | AVAILABLE WORK

Ash & Plumb have had works acquired by San Francisco's Museum of Modern Art (2026), The National Museum of Scotland and The Brighton Museum, as well as having shown works at PAD London, FOG San Francisco and TEFAF NY through their representation by Sarah Myerscough Gallery. Based in the South Downs, Sussex, Ash & Plumb are a British-Australian studio practice specialising in hand-turned and carved wooden vessels that sit between sculpture and artefact. Working primarily with English oak, their practice is rooted in material sensitivity, a deep respect for traditional craftsmanship, and a fascination with ancient form. Works are informed by historical design, with a particular focus on Greco-Roman classicism reinterpreted through a contemporary lens that celebrates the imperfections of the material with which they work.
