KATRIEN DOMS | AVAILABLE WORK

Katrien Dom's woodworking is defined by her poetic Ukiyo series, working outdoors year-round, allowing the weather to influence and shape her work. Beginning with green wood, the artist subjects the material to open-flame charring, using the traditional yet unpredictable technique of fire-scorching. This process generates fluid, organic contours, as the heat warps and cracks the surface, revealing the raw expressiveness of the material.
